

Counseling Center
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
Clinical Counselor
A1800294

The University of Illinois Counseling Center is hiring one or more clinical counselors. A successful candidate will have solid experience and expertise in serving college student populations. There are openings for a generalist with strong demonstrated interest and experience in alcohol and other drug concerns. Other areas of specialty will be considered according to current clinical needs including working with Latinx populations, Native American populations or eating disorders. Licensed and mid-career clinicians are strongly encouraged to apply. The Center is an accredited training site through the American Psychological Association (APA) with over 50 staff, which includes clinicians, doctoral interns, academic professional staff, and administrative staff as well as graduate assistants, undergraduate paraprofessionals, and practicum counselors.

The University of Illinois is located in the twin cities of Champaign and Urbana in central Illinois. The campus is also located between the three major metropolitan areas of Chicago, Indianapolis, and St. Louis and is considered one of the top comprehensive research public universities in the nation. Our staff works on campus with an academically talented and ethnically diverse student population, including 23 percent international students, 15 percent Asian students, 9 percent Latinx students, and 5 percent African American students, for a total enrollment of over 47,820 students. The University of Illinois is a traditional residential campus with nearly 10,500 students living in campus housing.
